

Scheduled Maintenance

Scheduled Maintenance

May 23, 2025

We typically perform routine maintenance once each summer for major server upgrades and increases in server capacity to address significant increases in our customer base.

SameGoal will be offline beginning Thursday, 7/3/25 at 5pm ET for planned maintenance. This planned maintenance window extends through Monday, 7/7/25 at 8am ET. However, it is likely that maintenance will not require the full window.

A message regarding this planned maintenance will appear on the login page. Once maintenance is complete, this message will be removed.
